Camper Covenant

Church camping is an experience in Christian living. Therefore, I am willing to assume some responsibilities which require certain behavior while I am a participant at camp.

I will be responsible for myself by:

- Not lying, cheating, stealing or tolerating such behavior.
- Staying drug and alcohol free except for specific approved prescription and across the counter med and I will inform staff when taking any medication.
- Attending all scheduled activities unless excused by staff.
- Going to bed, staying in bed and being quiet as requested.
- Talking no unnecessary risks or chances or encouraging others to do so.

I will be responsible to others by:

- Taking into consideration the rights and feelings of others.
- Not abusing the facility where we stay or harming other people's possessions.
- Not being loud or vulgar because it intrudes on others.
- Being a positive influence during camp.

Consequences for a broken covenant will be determined by the camp director & staff.

- I will pay for all damage I cause.
- I will pay for my own transportation home if asked to leave.

I am willing to commit to this covenant in order to make camp a safe, positive, growing experience for everyone.

Signed: _____
