

Yellowstone Presbytery awarded $5,000 grant

Moving from membership to Missional discipleship in our congregations, communities and the world

How can we deeply encounter and be engaged by Jesus Christ who leads us to share the gospel, to join God's mission of reconciliation?

How can we grow disciple-making leaders and church cultures that emphasize the importance of faith sharing and of God's righteousness and justice?

This $5,000 grant from the PCUSA' Office of Evangelism and Church Growth is for equipping leaders, sessions, congregations who want to "Growing Christ' Church Deep and Wide". Louisville staff, Eric Hoey and Ray Jones, will work with leaders here to customize for Montana's context, culture, & congregations, leading several training/equipping workshops around Montana and also be available to meet with Council, Committee on Ministry and other leaders as well as speak at our presbytery meeting in Billings, Feb. 28-March 1.

They will partner with our participating congregations and leaders to pilot, adapt and contextualize the PCUSA's new ENGAGE resources*.

Don't miss this opportunity to living out Christ's vision for us in our congregations and communities as Yellowstone Presbytery

*ENGAGE - Jesus and sharing the stories of who he is and what he has done for us individually and as disciple communities

ENGAGE in disciple-making

ENGAGE our communities and changing contexts

Living and growing as disciples and disciple communities through our words and works